

English

Text focus – Norse Myths and legends

Newspaper report

Using our Norse focus myth (Thor regains his hammer)

Letter

RE focused task

Short story

Using our Norse focus myth (Thor regains his hammer)

Music

Guitar

- Learning how to care for a guitar
- Being taught how to play different notes
- Learning new songs and ostinato patterns

French

- Learning new key phrases orally
- Accurately write new phrases and sentences
- Using new vocabulary in context

Science

Earth and Space

- Exploring the planets of our solar system
- Understanding how day and night happen
- Looking at how the moon interacts with Earth

P.E.

Basketball

Controlling balls using hand eye coordination

Dance

How to control body movements

Teamwork and communication

Vikings

Are the Vikings as they are portrayed in modern day life?

History

Vikings

- Using a range of sources to understand the Viking way of life
- To see if what we know about Vikings and their behaviour is actually true

R.E.

What spiritual pathways to moksha are written about in Hindu scriptures?

- Exploring the Hindu belief of pathways
- Looking at scriptures from the Hindu faith
- Comparing religious beliefs

Computing

Digital literacy

- Using excel to create tables of information
- How to turn that information into bar graphs and line graphs

P.S.H.E

Getting on and friendship

- Video input and discussion
- Use of drama to understand other people's point of view
- Thinking about our feelings and relating that to other people

Art and Design

Textiles
Creating tie-dye patterns by dying fabric
Creating prints by creating polystyrene stamps
Working together to create a whole class work of art

Maths

- Ratio and proportion
- Algebra
- Measurement
- Statistics