

Nacton Church of England Primary School Friday round up

18th December 2025

Dear parents/carers,

I would like to wholeheartedly thank all of you for your incredible support throughout a very busy and joyful December. There has certainly been lots going on, from the Nativity performances and Christmas lunch to your wonderful support of our raffle, pantomime, decorations afternoon and Christmas service, all of which helped make these events so special for the children. This week also included a festive afternoon of Christmas activities, where the children came together in their house teams to celebrate, have fun, and enjoy the season together. I am also deeply grateful for the kindness and appreciation shown to members of staff who are leaving; on a personal level, it truly means so much to see them recognised through such thoughtful words and generous gifts. Thank you as well for all the meaningful gifts shared with staff — your generosity and warmth are greatly appreciated. We wish all our families a very happy Christmas and a peaceful, joyful holiday season.

We look forward to welcoming the children back on Tuesday 6th January 2026!

Kind regards
Gemma Taylor
Headteacher
